CrackInventor2009activation [PORTABLE]

July 26, 2016 - Inventor was working great until about 3 days later I installed a patch to prevent Inventor from asking for new activation codes. I was . Inventor is . When I try to upload an image using the Create tool (F2), it asks me for an activation code. After I installed the hotfix for Inventor, I don't get the issue, but the code is still being requested. I couldn't find anything that could explain this. Apparently this was a bug in .NET Framework or .NET Framework and no one knows why this is happening! I can't find anything in my Inventor catalog that answers this activation code request.
